

Wildlife Groundswell Boosting Nature through Community Action

Calstock Arts Centre Sunday 27th October 9.00- 3pm PL18 9QX

Tickets: £15.00 £5.00 student concession (to include a pasty).

As part of a series of environmental presentations at Calstock Arts Calstock Parish Council's Environment Committee invite you to meet the leaders of organisations who are locally active in nature restoration.

9.00am Tea, Coffee, Music for our time,

9.50am Welcome from Steve Wood, Calstock Arts Environment Programme and introduction to Stuart Oates: Presenter, Organic Farmer and Environmental Journalist who will comper the day.

Presentations begin

Cllr. Richard Newton-Chance, Calstock Parish Council: Calstock Parish Council Environment and Climate Emergency Strategic Plan.

Dr. Maggie Freegard, Wildlife Groundswell, the Lizard Peninsula, Cornwall: Scaling Up Community Participation in Local Wildlife Recovery.

Sarah Gibson, Tamar Valley National Landscape Manager: Nature, Climate, Place, People - A Plan for the Next 30 Years.

George Holmes, Lead Ranger, National Trust, Cotehele: A vision for nature on the National Trust's Cotehele Estate.

11.30am Questions to the panel and discussion, Chaired by Stuart Oates.

12.00pm – 1.00pm Lunch – a chance to converse and listen to live music

Presentations resume

Cllr. Nick Viney, West Devon Borough Councillor, and Derek Gow Consultancy: Taking Action for Wildlife within a Community and Nationwide.

Dr. Nicola Rogers, Westcountry Rivers Trust: How to be More Effective for the River.

Cheryl Marriott Cornwall Wildlife Trust: A local perspective on how land is being, and might be, managed for Nature Recovery.

Lord Robin Teverson, Chair of the Cornwall Local Nature Partnership: Call for Action.

2.30pm Questions to the panel and discussion, Chaired by Stuart Oates.

3.00pm Close